

BOULDERBALLET

ADAPTIVE DANCE CLASSES

SEEKING VOLUNTEERS TO HELP DANCERS

Classes will take place on Sundays from Noon – 1PM
January through May 2019

Boulder Ballet is seeking volunteers with an interest and/or a background in working with children with disabilities to assist its medically-supervised Adaptive Dance program designed for youth with cognitive and/or physical challenges. The Adaptive Dance program will offer 10 students with cognitive and/or physical impairments the chance to be in dance classes geared towards their specific needs.

This new program is being offered by Boulder Ballet in our studios at
Dairy ARTS Center, 2590 Walnut Street, Boulder

The program is being developed for Boulder Ballet by Pediatric Rehabilitation specialists Dr. Stephanie Tow and Dr. Cristina Sarmiento. *We are seeking volunteers to assist dancers with a minimum commitment of 5 sessions.

To apply to be a volunteer, please fill out the application at:

A Volunteer Medical Education Session will be held on December 15th, 1:30–3:30pm, Studio 1, Dairy Arts Center

The above application will also have a list of dates volunteers are needed. Once your application has been approved, Boulder Ballet will send you more information about completing a background check.

We require all volunteers to be present at our medical education session on December 15th, but if you are not available, please let us know, and we may be able to go over information you missed in this session at another time with you.
